CAWP is exploring a partnership with a provider of a web-based software suite of safety and risk management tools. Through this partnership, CAWP would offer software to those members who express interest.

View the replay to learn more. If interested, contact Jason Koss at jasonk@cawp.org. CAWP can then provide additional details on how to move forward with this Association service.

The platform includes:

- Safety Library – programs, documents, and training programs • Online Training - numerous courses on construction safety, HR (diversity & harassment), etc.
- Incident Management Tools – safety audits, OSHA reporting, etc.
- HR Compliance Solutions – tools to assist with compliance; if interested in learning more, check out these two documents:
