PennDOT, Industry Highlight Funding Needs and Safety in Work Zones at Media Event

On July 20, CAWP Executive Director Rich Barcaskey spoke at a media event with PennDOT and Pittsburgh officials at the Smithfield Street Bridge preservation project. A survey conducted by AGC of America showed that 84% of Pennsylvania's contractors who responded reported that motor vehicles had crashed into their work zones during the past year. Work zone safety and the ongoing need for infrastructure funding were predominant issues addressed at the event.
