MASHA - The Mid-Atlantic Safety and Health Alliance (MASHA) will be held on October 26, 2023. The conference is open to everyone and features trending safety topics to meet the region's needs of continuing education in safety.

Here are some highlights on this year's agenda:

- Topics on a variety of pertinent safety and health topics.
- Latest safety products displayed by exhibitors.
- Large number of safety students looking for opportunities from area universities.
- Network with industry peers in construction, general industry and oil and gas.
- Continuing education credits (CEUs) to gain certification maintenance points.

MASHA, organized in 2007, is a non-profit alliance to promote awareness of proactive safety and health practices through education and professional networking opportunities.
