Membership Renewal for 2025

In early November, designated contacts at each member company will receive a renewal notice and invoice for your company's membership via email.

Your company's CAWP membership grants all employees within your organization access to:

- Eight to ten annual networking events ranging from casual get-togethers to award celebrations with approximately 1,500 yearly attendees.
- AGC (Associated General Contractors of America) offerings as CAWP is an AGC Chapter.
- Timely industry news including advocacy and labor relations developments, trends, and more.
- Training and education.
- Customized sponsorship opportunities.

If you have any questions about your membership or need to change contact information for renewal, please contact Stephanie Teagarden at stephaniet@cawp.org.

MENTAL HEALTH MINUTE

YINZ GOOD?

Halloween is this week- a time for fun, candy, and costumes. Some Halloween costumes can make light of serious conditions and perpetuate dangerous stereotypes, such as dressing up as someone who is mentally ill (costumes that include words such as 'mental patient,' 'psycho,' or 'insane asylum'), and contribute to the stigma surrounding mental illness.

This article offers tips and guidance on how to be an advocate for those who live with mental illness this Halloween.
