House Panel OKs Bill to Speed Up PSP Transfer

A House committee approved a bipartisan bill last week to speed up the transfer of public funding for the Pennsylvania State Police to the taxpayer-supported General Fund from the Motor License Fund, which supports work on roads and bridges.

The Transportation Committee voted unanimously in favor of House Bill 1085 to remove the state police altogether as a recipient of Motor License revenue by Fiscal Year 2026-27. Under HB1085, the state police would receive one final transfer of $125 million from the Motor License Fund in FY 2025-26.

Removing the state police from the Motor License Fund has been a policy goal for years as the need increases for more revenue to fix roads and bridges.

YINZ GOOD?

Validation skills can help you improve your personal and work relationships. These skills communicate that one is mindful of, understands, and empathizes with another person's experience, thereby accepting it as valid. Studies have demonstrated that validating others can empower you to improve relationships, decrease conflict, and increase self-compassion and influence.

In this guide, Psyche outlines what validation is, offers guidance to help you recognize when it's happening or not happening in a conversation, and how to develop your skills for communicating it.
