Join CAWP in Supporting the Construction Hike for Hope

CAWP is proud to sponsor the Construction Hike for Hope, a fundraising and awareness event supporting the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP). The event brings together members of the construction community to show support for mental health and help raise funds for suicide prevention programs, education, and outreach. By participating, the industry can help foster stronger conversations around mental wellness and support those who may be struggling.

Date: 05/16/2026

CAWP Membership Directory Updates

Please be advised that E&M Consulting is attempting to reach all CAWP members to update their directory listing for CAWP's Member Directory. This is a legitimate request to update your listing that will appear in both the print and online version of the CAWP member directory for 2026-2027. We appreciate your cooperation to help us prepare an accurate directory for our membership.

It is helpful for our records if you reply even if there are no changes needed. This outreach is different than the outreach done at the end of 2025 for advertising opportunities.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Emily at emilym@cawp.org.

MENTAL HEALTH MINUTE

YINZ GOOD?

While it costs time, energy, and money to equip workers to manage daily stress and handle challenges, evidence shows that the cost of failing to support employees' psychological well-being can be much higher.

Using applied psychological research, the American Psychological Association outlines five practical ways employers can support and enact meaningful ways to foster a positive work environment.
